Winner—Br. h, by Sir Dixon—Kentucky Belle II. (trained by J. B. Respass). Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Six Shooter ran to his best form and was easily the best. He was badly pocketed at the first turn and inclined to loaf a little down the backstretch. Knight shook him up some in the final eighth, where he came away without much trouble. Sam Fullen finished resolutely. and was much the best of the others. Toah outstayed Jack Demund in a spirited last sixteenth struggle. The latter showed much speed, but tired when the pinch came. Wainamoinen was well beaten just after turning for home. Modicum was out of place.

Overweights—Modicum, 2 pounds; Jack Demund, 1.

Six Shooter, show, out. Sam Fullen, show, 4 to 5. Toah, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—Br. g, by Aloha—Eminence (trained by F. Rector). Went to post at 3:00. At post 11 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Peter Paul moved up fast on Miss Crawford just before turning for home and had her beaten all through the last sixteenth. The latter showed much speed, but tired fast when challenged by the winner. Anne Davis ran a good race throughout. Mast finished going fast. Gold Piece faltered in the last eighth. Sweetie showed speed, but fell away beaten when a furlong out. The others were never serious contenders.

Overweights—Lanark, 1 pound.

Peter Paul, show, 2 to 5. Miss Crawford, show, evens. Anne Davis, show, evens.

39980 THIRD RACE—1 1-8 Miles. 3-year-olds and upward. The Oakwood Handicap. $2,500 added. Net value to winner $3,150.

Time, 2:48, 48 1/2, 1:12 1/2, 1:39, 1:51 1/2.

Winner—Ch. c, by Macduff—Manola Mason (trained by S. C. Hildreth). Went to post at 3:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second handily. McChesney was in rare form. Dominick rated him along cleverly for the first seven furlongs and then gave him his head. He moved up fast on Allan-a-Dale and Waswift turning for home and had them beaten when a furlong out, winning thereafter as his rider pleased. Allan-a-Dale set a hot pace throughout and responded gamely under the whip in the last sixteenth. Little Scout made up ground fast in the last quarter and wore down Waswift in the closing strides. The latter measured stride for stride with Allan-a-Dale for one mile and then tired perceptibly. Lucien Appleby was never a serious contender. The time is a new track record.

Scratched—39907 Captain Arnold, 95; 39764 Aladdin, 114; 39810 John McGurk, 101 (1:30 p. m.); 39884 Linguist, 100 (2:10 p. m.); 39907 Gold Bell, 92 (2:14 p. m.); (39956) Gregor K., 104 (2:44 p. m.)

McChesney, show, out. Allan-a-Dale, show, 2 to 5. Little Scout, show, 3 to 5.

Time, 2:48, 48 1/2, 1:14, 1:41 1/2, 1:47 1/2.

Winner—Ch. f, by St. Charles—Jilt (trained by J. Everman). Went to post at 4:25. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Frivol moved up fast turning for home and assumed command when straightened out for the wire, holding the field safe all through the last eighth. Barrica faltered in the last sixteenth. Caxton made up ground fast in the last quarter and finished fast. Bard of Avon came with a rush in the closing strides. He showed improvement and is about ready to win. Prince Webb ran well for seven furlongs. Sea Lion displayed much speed, but was well beaten turning for home.

Overweights—El Ghor, 1 1/2 pounds; Frivol, 4; Sea Lion, 1; Jaubert, 2. Frivol, show, evens. Barrica, show, 4 to 5. Caxton, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. c, by King Eric—Tea's Over (trained by J. B. Respass). Went to post at 5:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Dick Welles showed his usual keen turn of speed and never left the result in doubt. Runnels finished resolutely, wearing down A. D. Gibson in the final sixteenth. The latter ran right to the mark and had no mishaps. Stem Winder showed early speed. The others were never serious contenders.

Scratched—39861 Skilful, 111; 39199 Theory, 109; 39885 Evening Star, 107; 35150 Lute, 107; (39861) Sylvia Talbot, 106; 39908 Ontonagon, 101; 36120 Ponca, 98; 39639 Gypzene, 96. Dick Welles, show, out. Runnels, show, 1 to 2. A. D. Gibson, show, 1 to 8.

Winner—B. f, by Lord Dalmeny—Bessie Bisland (trained by O. S. Newman). Went to post at 5:40. At post 2 minutes. Start bad, Haviland being left standing still at the post. Won driving; second easily. Our Bessie moved up fast when entering the last quarter and outstayed Boaster in a rattling last sixteenth struggle. The latter ran to his best form and finished resolutely under a hard drive. Pirate showed much speed, but tired fast in the last eighth. Alice Dougherty had enough when turning for home. Amur ran a dull race and appears to be of no present account.

Scratched—37900 Nettie Regent, 93. Our Bessie, show, 4 to 5. Boaster, show, 4 to 5. Pirate, show, 5 to 1. Haviland, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. c, by Candlemas—Sweet Home (trained by A. Zimmer). Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second easily. Homestead was outrun early, but turned into the stretch on the extreme outside and joined the favorite when a furlong out, just getting home in the last stride after a desperate struggle. Cinquevalli was certainly the best at the distance. Getting away flatfooted and in close quarters, he rushed up on the inside and shook off Locket in the first quarter and could have come away at the time, but Bullman was content to take only a slight lead to the stretch, allowing the winner to get up to and outgame his mount in the final drive. Lord Badge closed up fast in the last quarter and got up in the last stride to beat Candleing. The latter had a fighting chance when a sixteenth out and ran a surprisingly good race. Locket quit after going a fast half and is strictly a mudlark. Tantal

McCHESNEY'S GREAT RACE.

Washington Park was at its best yesterday. So was McChesney. The grounds never looked more beautiful, the track was the acme of perfection, the grandstand, club house and lawns were thronged with a representative gathering, embracing men of prominence politically, financially, and intellectually, and charming women of social influence, whose presence contributed to the brilliancy of an occasion that was a substantial, emphatic and glowing evidence of the popularity of high class racing.

And the highest type of the American thoroughbred, a horse perhaps the equal, possibly the superior, of any turf performer in any land, was there. Moreover, he performed in a sensational manner, amazed and thrilled spectators and elicited rapturous expressions of delight and admiration. McChesney was a turf idol yesterday morning. Yesterday evening he was acclaimed the king of the realm of the thoroughbred.

The Oakwood Handicap, with McChesney a starter, was the attraction that drew the great crowd. It produced a wonderful and somewhat spectacular race in which McChesney was the feature and of which he was an easy winner. Carrying 129 pounds he ran the mile and a furlong in 1:51½, and was not fully extended. When he had run a mile in 1:39 he was striding as if rating along in a four mile dash, and the result was practically settled. Dominick rode him with skill and judgment and actually had a good hold of the reins at every post. Allan-a-Dale, with an impost of 120 pounds, and Waswift, favored with only 104 pounds, began racing for the lead the instant the barrier was released. Going at a terrific pace they traveled on almost even terms for three-quarters of a mile, with McChesney third, from two to four lengths away. Beginning the upper turn McChesney began closing on them. As he steadily improved his position, shouting, cheering and laughter were heard from every end of the park. At the bend into the homestretch he was at the heels of the leading pair. A hundred yards farther along he got on even terms. He kept company with them for a few strides and then went to the front and assumed a clear lead. Dominick did not have to ask him to take the lead. He simply bounded into it because the others were tiring while he was apparently just ready to run. When he took command whips were drawn on Allan-a-Dale and Waswift and a struggle for second place began. Allan-a-Dale outlasted his lighter weighted rival and finished second. Waswift tired so badly that Little Scout, five lengths behind him at the head of the stretch, secured third place. Lucien Appleby was so far back at all stages that spectators almost overlooked him. The fractional time of the race was 24½, 48½, 1:12½, 1:39, 1:51½.

The story of the Oakwood Handicap is now as follows:

Year.	Horse.	Wt.	Star's.	Value.	Time.
1884	Fosterl	95	15	$3,305	1:53½
1885	Rapido	95	12	3,195	1:56
1886	Spalding	97	12	2,635	1:53½
1887	Estrella	107	7	2,205	1:54½
1888	Dad	102	8	2,845	2:06½
1889	Kaloolah	109	16	3,345	1:54½
1890	Teuton	113	9	2,775	1:52½
1891	Racine	124	12	3,595	1:53
1892	Ceverton	103	9	4,115	2:16½
1893	Pessara	117	12	4,140	1:56½
1894	Cash Day	97½	8	3,190	1:53½
1898	Fervor	103	6	2,060	1:51½
1900	Fly By Night	118	9	2,010	1:53
1901	Robert Waddell	115	9	3,100	1:52½
1902	Aladdin	107	8	2,930	2:02½
1903	McChesney	129	5	3,150	1:51½

With 120 pounds up, Bonhibert, four years old, ran the distance at Brighton Beach, July 30, 1902, in 1:51, which is the record. That McChesney could have equalled that record, if necessary, is the opinion of nearly everybody who saw yesterday's race. The best previous record for the Oakwood was 1:51½, made by Fervor in 1898. It was also the track record.

Six Shooter equalled the record for all tracks at one mile and twenty yards in the first race, the time of which was 1:40. He was a strong favorite, with Toah a corresponding second choice. The field of six ran well together until turning into the homestretch, where Six Shooter went up on the outside and Jack Demund squeezed through between Wainamoinen and Sam Fullen and caused a shuffle, in which Toah was pinched out of the contest. After straightening out the favorite quickly gained the lead and finished three lengths ahead of Sam Fullen. Toah recovered enough ground to beat Jack Demund a neck for third place.

Fifteen two-year-olds ran in the second race, of five furlongs. They gave Starter Dwyer a lot of trouble, but he managed to get them away in good order. Once on the journey, Miss Crawford, the second choice, dashed into the lead and Peter Paul, the favorite, went after her. The others cut no figure in the contest. Miss Crawford had a lead of three lengths when she had gone nearly three furlongs. She had hardly straightened for home before Peter Paul was alongside of her. Eventually Peter Paul won by a length. Anne Davis, the third choice, beat the rest of the squadron. She finished seven lengths behind Miss Crawford.

Frivol was a clever winner of the fourth race, a selling dash of one mile and a sixteenth. She ran lapped on Sea Lion, the pacemaker, to the middle of the upper turn and then became the leader. Her margin at the end was nearly two lengths. The next six, Barrica, Caxton, Bard of Avon, Satin Coat, The Bobby and Miracle II. were heads and necks apart.

Dick Welles was an almost prohibitive favorite for the fifth race, three-quarters of a mile, in which he conceded ten pounds each to Stem Winder, Si Ah, Runnels, A. D. Gibson and Zella Knight. He won, but not with the ease expected. Runnels was right at his heels at the finish.

Going along the backstretch Dick Welles was about three lengths ahead of A. D. Gibson, and the latter almost as far in advance of Runnels. On the turn the latter passed into second position and made a move at the leader before getting into the final quarter. As they squared for home the favorite drew away from Runnels and resumed a lead of three lengths. Runnels closed up strongly in the run to the stand.

Haviland, a short priced favorite, was left standing at the post at the start for the sixth race. He refused to break when the gate was elevated. Pirate was in the van until nearing the last eighth post, then Our Bessie overhauled him and Boaster became a close third. In the final struggle Our Bessie won and Boaster captured second money.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

Peaceful and Ethylene were sold Friday to Roy & Hennessey, they being the highest bidders, by Felsenthal & Foreman acting for E. J. Arnold & Co. The horses were formerly the property of the defunct get-rich-quick concern, and were seized by order of the United States Court on their arrival here from San Francisco. The price paid for the horses was $2,200.

W. F. Schulte sent the two-year-old Batts from Detroit to John W. Schorr to handle and start in some of the stakes for youngsters to be decided at Washington Park.

Frivol, which won the fourth race, received an ugly cut on her left hind leg in the race.

Starter Dwyer stated that Haviland refused to break when he released the barrier. Jockey S. Bonner was yesterday suspended by the judges for an indefinite period for his reckless riding on Alene Abbott in the fourth race Friday. The judges at Washington Park are determined to discourage rough methods on the part of the riders and will hereafter punish summarily all offenders. The remainder of the S. W. Street string of horses, including Port Royal and Brush By, which are being raced at Detroit, will arrive here some time this week.

F Miller arrived at Hawthorne with four horses from New York yesterday.

Jockey Dominick, who rode McChesney in the Oakwood Handicap, stated after the race that his mount, while trailing the pacemakers, Allan-a-Dale and Waswift, had a steady hold of the bit, but when he passed into the lead, which he did while rounding the stretch turn, McChesney seemed to ease up of his own accord, thereby showing conclusively that the horse is a loafer and will not unnecessarily extend himself unless he is made to do it.

T. C. McDowell stated before the running of the Oakwood Handicap that he thought his horse Allan-a-Dale would be a better horse after the race than he was before. When asked by a bystander for the meaning of his remark he replied: "Well, I have been running my horse of late in short races and I don't think he is exactly up to a bruising race over a distance." After the race it was reported that he had said: "If McChesney runs again with Allan-a-Dale McChesney ought to carry 140 pounds and my horse 100."

*Apprentice allowance. Time, 1:36, 1:26, 1:18, 1:44, 1:46, 1:48.
Winner—Bk. f, by Hermene—Sweet Genevieve (trained by R. D. Jones).
Went to post at 2:30. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Hegera was in the heaviest going all the way, endured continuous pressure, seemed to be beaten on the stretch entry, but rallied and won on her courage. Brown Vail tired in the stretch when she apparently had the race won. Chandoo finished fast. The boy on Broodler refused to ride into the flying mud and the horse ran an inferior race. Galanthus was off badly, taken the long way and was given a weak ride.
Scratched—3963 Certain, 111; 39944 Countess Clara, 109; 39968 Burlap, 101; 39488 Murmur, 94.
Overweights—Luna Minor, 2 pounds; Dr. Kammerer, 4.

Time, 1:34, 2:51, 5:1, 1:18.
Winner—B. c, by Sykeston—White Wings (trained by G. P. Mattingly).
Went to post at 3:06. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Old Stone ran in remarkably improved form, showed great speed, always had his field safe and was best. Check Morgan ran well throughout. Don O'High ran fairly well. Walnut Hill did not run his race. Atlas ran well to the stretch only. Bill Knight ran a very bad race, but Troxler did not hold his head up and allowed him to flounder about.
Scratched—(39895) Wreath of Ivy, 110; 39920 Lord Hermene, 103; 39920 Hugh McGowan, 103; Louisiana, 100.

*Apprentice allowance. Time, 1:34, 2:51, 5:1, 1:17.
Winner—B. c, by Counter Tenor—Hour (trained by L. Johnson).
Went to post at 3:33. At post 1 minute. Start good for all but Lynch, whose green rider was at fault. Won driving; second the same. Howling Dervish displayed unexpected ability to run in mud, was under pressure all the way, stood a drive gamely and was held straight while the others were staggering at the end. I Know finished with great gameness under a weak ride and would have won in a few more strides. Dr. Scharff was apparently winning easily but Shea let go of his head to whip him and fell out quickly. Reducer ran fairly well. Ciales went badly in the going.
Scratched—39760 Algareta, 104; 39894 Tenny Belle, 101; 37320 Latuka, 100; 39942 Fickle Saint, 96; 39825 Dolly Hayman, 91; 39968 Little Corker, 88.

*Coupled in betting. Time, 1:34, 2:51, 4:41, 1:05.
Winner—B. f, by Merry Monarch—Odette (trained by W. McKinnie).
Went to post at 4:03. At post 4 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second handily. Perla was off running free of mud, saved ten lengths by cutting across the stretch turn while the field swung wide, but she was tiring at the end. Matt Wadleigh ran his usual consistent race, but was also tiring at the end. Imboden ran into the fence, but finished like a tornado and might have won had Matt Wadleigh not swung in and interfered with him in the last fifty yards. Kilo ran his race. Eugenie B. went well to the three-eighths post, when Kelly got her cut off, though he was on the outside. She lost several lengths here, closed a lot of ground, swung very wide turning into the stretch and tired. She ran a brilliant race. Don Alvaro did not like the mud.
Scratched—39578 Leopold, 113.
The entry, show, 3 to 5. Matt Wadleigh, show, 4 to 5. Imboden, show, evens. Kilo, show, out.

Time, 2:54, 5:3, 1:18, 1:45, 1:53.
Winner—Br. c, by Lamplighter—Johnetta (trained by H. R. Baker).
Went to post at 4:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good for all but Maltster. Won in a drive; second the same. Jack Young ran to his best form, stuck to his work gamely and won on his courage. Orris ran an exceptionally good race in mud. DeReszke went well to the stretch, then tired. Taby Tosa does not like mud. Pourquoi Pas is seemingly of no present account. Maltster was caught in the barrier and as good as left, raced to the front in the first half, then tired.
Scratched—39776 Eda Riley, 99.

Winner—Ch. c, by Bob Miles—Leonora (trained by R. H. Clark).

Went to post at 5:03. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second handily. The Way hung to his work gamely, received a powerful finish and won in the last stride. Eugenie S., which never displayed a fondness for heavy going heretofore, ran a brilliant race in it today and would have won with a stronger rider in the saddle. Charles Ramsey labored in the mud. Pathos ran a dull race in his own going. He could have been ridden more vigorously. W. B. Gates has trained off.

Winner—B. h, by Faverdale—Eccola (trained by T. E. Crist).
Went to post at 5:32. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Echo Dale was best, but Shea could not hold him together and he had to be kicked out to win. He should have won easily. Custus ran a good race and might have won had he been kept straight at the finish. Bengal ran an extra good race in the mud. Extol can do better.

Time, 25, 50, 1:16, 1:42, 1:50.
 Winner—B. f. by Lissak or Lohi—Wamsutta (trained by J. M. Johnson).
 Went to post at 5:03. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same.
 Belle Dodson was best handled, raced Jessie J. into submission in the first part of the race and came away at her leisure in the stretch. Diamontina was also well handled, ran well and is steadily improving. Vestment came fast in the final furlong. Jessie J. showed early speed, but tired. San Marino was doing her best throughout apparently.
 Belle Dodson, show, 3 to 5. Diamontina, show, 4 to 5. Vestment, show, 1 to 2. San Marino, show, 4 to 5.

Time, 25, 50, 1:16, 1:42, 1:55.
 Winner—Blk. c. by Sir Dixon—Kentucky Belle II. (trained by J. H. Baker).
 Went to post at 5:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same.
 Sir Gallant jumped away in the lead and opened up a winning gap before reaching the first turn. He was still cantering at the finish. Bank Street caught Glenwood tiring on the far turn and had no trouble in getting second place. Glenwood ran in improved form. Easy Street began slowly and made up a lot of ground in the last quarter. Autolight showed but little speed and had no apparent mishaps.
 Scratched—(39901)Scortic, 112.
 Sir Gallant, show, out. Bank Street, show, out. Glenwood, show, 3 to 2. Autolight, show, 1 to 3.

pull for the first mile, when he blundered, carrying away several fence rails and losing his advantage in a twinkling, and thereafter never being able to get up. He should develop into one of the best of the year. Carrier Pigeon lost so much ground at the obstacles as to eliminate him as a contender early in the game. Self Protection went well for half the journey. The Virginian was a strong contender at the end and was moving up when he fell at the second from the last jump.

Scratched—39933 Judge Phillips, 158; (39448)Adjidaumo, 156; (39048)Arian, 137.

Added starters. ††† Coupled in betting. Time, 1:13.
 Winner—B. c. by Top Gallant—Glen Hop (trained by J. E. Madden).
 Went to post at 3:35. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily.
 Pulsus held a good position next to the rail right in behind the pacemaker and darted through on the inside as they straightened for home in the stretch and came away fast right at the end, was surely the best today and track conditions favored him against the favorite. Broomstick forced the pace nearly throughout and ran a grand race at the weights. He tired slightly in the final furlong and may not have been quite keyed up and in addition found the going against him. Conjuror, evidently another crackerjack, finished a fast running third. Alliance came out of the rack in the last furlong and although poorly handled finished like a cyclone on his own courage. Stalwart ran lapped on Broomstick for the first five furlongs and was tiring at the end, yet he stuck to his work gamely. Magistrate raced on the extreme outside in the first flight to the turn where he was bearing out, losing ground, and was unable to improve his position. He has bad feet which probably stopped him in the dry going. Boxwood, which trailed for half the journey, was making up ground at the end. Aristocracy was on nearly even terms on the turn into the stretch.
 Scratched—39170 Rapid Water, 122; 39792 Dimple, 114.
 Corrected weights—Aristocracy, 122.
